Committee Reports

Personnel

J. King reported the Personnel Committee met on August 7, 2018 and the minutes were distributed to the Board. The Committee discussed the plan for staff changes, the RFPs for Storyville and a timeline for the Director evaluation. He also said the Committee and Board Chair met and agreed on the addendum to the Director contract which will be brought to the Board next month.

Finance

J. Hernandez indicated the Committee looked at the preliminary documents for the budget process.

There was no Storyville Committee meeting but D. Hughes said the RFPs for the Storyville Construction and Project Management were reviewed by the Finance Committee.

Reports

K. Richards said that he would like to start inviting local VIPs to MADL programs to introduce the program which would be a great way for MADL to form partnerships and to inform the Community of all the great programs MADL provides.

B. Hall indicated the banking switch to Fifth Third is in motion and that after just 4 days a sizeable amount of interest income has been collected.

K. Richards said Kevin Wisnieski has been hired as the new IT Manager and will start at the end of August.

Anita Varela reported the Fall newsletter is being printed now. She noted that it is MADL’s 80th anniversary this year and she is working on some promotional material for that.

B. Scolnik asked about the drop in circulation figures. K. Richards said it is a nationwide trend for a decrease in book circulation. MADL is working to add to their electronic resources which would boost circulation. It was reported that some resources were being missed on the circulation report.

B. Hall said that she would like to move forward with investments with Fifth Third Bank and distributed a proposal to the Board. She said the proposal was put together abiding by MADL’s investment policy. She also indicated MADL will probably to pieces of the proposal and not each option listed.
