Committees
Personnel
J. King indicated the Committee met prior to this meeting and the item will be covered under 9f.
D. Hughes said the Finance Committee met on December 10, 2018 to discuss Branch Expenditures and Budget Amendments. The Chair lauded MADL staff for bringing in more revenue and lowering expenditures for the year.

D. Hughes said that the Storyville project is underway and since the project has life, it will now be managed and pushed forward by the MADL staff and the MADL Board can consider it as a great accomplishment.

Reports
K. Richards introduced new MADL staff members: Jamie Anderson, Administrative Assistant, Finance and Karen Blackledge, Early Literacy Coordinator. The MADL Board welcomed the new staff.

Old Business
K. Wisniewski updated the MADL board on the MADL website redesign and the replacement of staff computers.

K. Richards said the Storyville RFP for General Contracting closes on December 21st.

Motion by Holter, Seconded by Sims

That the MADL Board authorizes two of the following: MADL Director, MADL Director of Finance and MADL Board Chair to make the necessary requests for funds from the Storyville Capital Campaign Fund at the community Foundation of Muskegon County to make payments to vendors as needed for the Storyville Project. MADL will pay vendor bills in a timely manner and periodically submit requests to the Foundation for reimbursement back to MADL and this should include all prior payments made by MADL since the inception of the project.
